Ixom announces leadership renewal

Melbourne – Ixom announces a senior leadership renewal with the appointment of Mr Bryce Wolfe, Ixom’s current Finance Director & Chief Financial Officer (CFO), as Interim Chief Executive Officer (CEO) with immediate effect, while an executive search for a new CEO will commence.

Mr Wolfe will continue his role as CFO concurrently and replaces Mr David Head as CEO. Mr Wolfe joined Ixom as Finance Director & CFO in 2014 when it was a division of Orica Australia Pty Ltd. Prior to joining Ixom, he held the positions of Group Deputy CFO at Village Roadshow Limited in Melbourne and CFO of Village Roadshow Entertainment Group, which saw him work closely with private equity investors in the Los Angeles-based global distribution business. Earlier in his career, he was a London-based UK sector head for Mergers & Acquisitions at Ernst & Young.

Mr Andrew Larke Chairman of Ixom, said, “On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank David for his commitment to Ixom since first joining us on an interim basis in February 2021. During his tenure, David has had a strong focus on employees and has led the executive leadership team to deliver strong financial results and continued growth for Ixom.”

“Bryce has been a stalwart of the company and we are confident he will continue to grow Ixom and deliver on our promises, while we undertake a global executive search for a new CEO.”
